Best On-line Exhibition --

"Cycles: African Life Through Art"

Institution: Indianapolis Museum of Art.

Judges' Comments:

The design of this online exhibit is a piece of art itself. Beautiful and fun to explore. . . . A highly visually appealing and thought provoking site which provides a rich user experience through interactivity, text and images. A particular highlight is the 'context' link that a user can click on when viewing an object. The graphic elements also nicely enhance the content and navigational options available to the user.
